Who We Are

Freedom Path Counseling is a not-for-profit faith-based counseling organization. We seek to serve those struggling in our community through a multifaceted approach that meets each client where they are. We employ Board Certified Pastoral Counselors (BCPC, BCCC) and Licensed Professional Counselors (LAPC, LPC, etc.) to provide the best possible care for a variety of issues faced by today's families.

Why We Exist

At Freedom Path Counseling, we're driven by a single goal; to help our clients experience healing in their lives. We believe healing opens the door to freedom from destructive behaviors, victory over life's difficult circumstances, and the restoration of relationships. We exist to see transformation in the lives of hurting people. Through counseling, we join those struggling in the process of moving from frustration, anxiety, depression, and hopelessness to having a clear plan for creating a life characterized by inner joy and true peace.
